Re: United States v. Constantinescu et al, No. 4:22-CR-00612

Dear Counsel:

Consistent with our earlier representations, please find enclosed to this letter in Attachment A the stock tickers and date ranges that are relevant to, among other things, the Defendants' profit, as alleged in paragraph 1 of the Superseding Indictment.

The specific profit calculation as to each stock ticker and date range will be further disclosed as part of the United States' expert disclosure on June 5, 2023, as the parties previously agreed and presented to the Court. Nonetheless, to assist your trial preparation, we anticipate that the underlying profit calculation for each stock ticker and date range involves (1) identifying at least one false or misleading statement by a defendant on Twitter, Atlas Trading Discord or both, similar to the false or misleading statements alleged in paragraphs 1 & 13 of the Superseding Indictment and further specified in paragraphs 21 – 115 as to specific stocks; and (2) aggregating each defendant's profit or loss for that stock ticker during the enumerated date range. The June 5, 2023 expert disclosure will also detail the false and misleading statements relevant to this calculation.

The conduct underlying the stock tickers and date ranges in Attachment A provides direct evidence of, and is intrinsic to, the charged offenses. In this way, it is intrinsically intertwined with the charged conduct. To the extent you believe that this conduct is extrinsic evidence, we are providing you with advanced notice of our position that the conduct relevant to these stock tickers and date ranges is properly admissible under Rule 404(b) to prove motive, opportunity, intent, plan, knowledge, absence of mistake or lack of accident. We will provide you with formal notice under Rule 404(b) as to this information in our June 5, 2023 disclosure.

To assist your review of Attachment A, the following information represents a legend for the columns in the spreadsheet:

- Column A, Event ID: a unique identifier for the transactions listed in the other columns;

- Column B, Symbol: the at-issue stock ticker;

- Column C, Event Start: the start date of the date range in which (a) at least one defendant made a false or misleading statement about the stock ticker in Column B; and (b) for which at least one defendant also traded in the stock and closed a position;

- Column D, Event End: the end of the date range in which (a) at least one defendant made a false or misleading statement about the stock ticker in Column B; and (b) for which at least one defendant also traded in the stock and closed a position;

- Columns E – L: if a defendant closed a position in the stock ticker in Column B during the date range in Columns C and D, that defendant is referenced as "1"; if a defendant did not close a position in the stock ticker in Column B during the date range in Columns C and D, the defendant is referenced as a "0".

We are voluntarily providing this information well in advance of the June 5, 2023 expert disclosure to assist your preparation for the October 23, 2023 trial. We reserve the right to edit or otherwise supplement the information in Attachment A prior to the June 5, 2023 disclosure.

Please let us know if you have any questions about this disclosure.

Sincerely
/s/ Scott Armstrong
Scott Armstrong, Assistant Chief
John J. Liolos, Trial Attorney
